The act of 1916, chapter 426, incorporating the town of Bowie in Prince George's County held not to violate the provisions of article 33, since the election provided for in said act was not to be held under that article. This act did not repeal any part of article 33 so as to affect the provisions thereof as applicable to elections not provided for by said act. Johnson v. Luers, 129 Md. 534.

4.

The power is vested in the Governor to fill a vacancy in the office of supervisor of elections both by this section and by article 2, section 11 of the constitution. Truitt v. Collins, 122 Md. 530.
